

Hariadi Budiman

Chief Representative of Esso Indonesia Inc.

Mr. Budiman is a seasoned oil and gas professional with a solid commercial background. He has been with ExxonMobil for 20 years.

He started as an experienced hire for Jakarta's gas marketing team. Then, in 2005, he was assigned to support the LNG marketing office in Doha, Qatar. Shortly after, in 2008, he was transferred to Houston subsequently for managerial and planning roles.

He returned to Jakarta in 2011 to lead Indonesia's gas marketing and in 2013 was assigned to Singapore and later appointed as the head of the LNG commercial operations team. During his tenure in Singapore, he was also in charge of the marketing team for Papua New Guinea's first LNG project, PNG LNG. He moved to Perth, Australia, in 2019 to manage commercial matters supporting the Gorgon LNG. He returned to Jakarta again in late 2020 and later assumed his current position in Esso Indonesia Inc.

Mr. Budiman has an engineering bachelor's degree from the University of Indonesia and a master of business from Monash University.
